- Maintain the Center's communications database and email marketing system.
- Work closely with Center staff to identify needs for updates to written materials, website, and/or events and campaigns to highlight in communications efforts.
- Work with agency staff to solicit content for communications efforts, including testimony, photos, and information about upcoming events and needs.
- Assist the Development and Communications Director with other communications tasks as needed.

2. Social Media Engagement

- Manage the Center's social media platforms and blog to ensure effective communication of the agency's mission, vision and values.
- Work with the Development and Communication Director to set engagement goals for each quarter.
- Identify strategic partnerships via social media for enhanced community engagement.
- Develop mission- appropriate content for scheduled delivery via social media platforms.
- Maintain positive community relations and answer community member inquiries in a timely and gracious manner.

3. New Member Recruitment

- Coordinate community-wide distribution of volunteer and staff openings including updates to the website and electronic distribution via email lists
- Maintain updated email distribution list for announcements
- Coordinate posting of fliers throughout the community by volunteers

4. General Responsibilities

- Accomplish other tasks as determined by the Executive Director and Development and Communications Director.
- Work as a team member in order to achieve the mission of the Center.
- Maintain appropriate standards of confidentiality.
