

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

Education and Outreach

The Orange County Rape Crisis Center offers programs for both raising awareness about sexual violence and teaching prevention skills. We cover a variety of topics for children, teens, and adults.

“Every year the presenters and programs have been great. The children talk about the program long after and share things with me that might not otherwise have come up.”
~ School teacher

Personal Safety Saying:

Say No!
Get Away!
Tell Someone!

“Your team did a great job teaching my son basic skills he can use to keep safe, in a simple and positive way that didn’t overwhelm him.”
~ Parent

What We’re Doing

- We present our programs to more than 12,000 children, teens, and adults in Orange County every year.
- We visit every K-5 classroom in both Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools and Orange County Schools every year.
- We present specialized programs to local middle schools about preventing sexual bullying.
- We recently expanded our program to preschool classes in the HeadStart program as well as self-contained Special Education classes.
- We work with school officials and the Department of Social Services to ensure that students receive services when they disclose an incident of sexual abuse during a program or exhibit behavior during a program that requires further attention.
